RELOCATION ANALYSIS

A very practical use of astrology is called location analysis. This is a pretty broad subject area and one that is gaining in popularity due to computer generated programs. Everything that has a beginning has a horoscope: animals, cars, businesses, cities and countries. The more specific the information concerning that initiating moment, the more detailed is the chart. Everyplace you go has a known or unknown astrology chart. This in part explains doing the chart. chart. Inis in part explains deja vu, instant recognition or immediate repulsion toward some localities; for places are no different from people in their ability to elicit intuitive responses from us tuitive responses from us.

Just as we find it helpful to have certain basic information astrologically about the people with whom we are in relationship (business, marital or oth-erwise)so too, it is help-ful to know the information about the community we Comparing your live in.

own chart to the location you live in often yields much useful information.

If you have moved away If you have moved away from your place of birth, then you might find it a good idea to erect a relocation chart based on your new place of residence. The new chart is developed AS IF YOU WERE BORN IN THE NEW PLACE. These charts are extremely beneficial and extremely beneficial and extremely beneficial and ex-explain many occurances explain many occurances that the natal chart fails to show. Of course, you never lose your natal chart: where ever you go you take your natal chart with you. Now you are working with two charts and growth is often speeded up growth is often speeded up as fixations are loosened by the new energies.

Still another way to get information is from the new computer generated programs called "Astrocartography" and "Local Space." Both programs locate high energy points around the world based on your natal information and should you have the opportunity to move, you can choose places that will help you access ener- gies that will aid you in accomplishing your goals. This information is very helpful in pointing out places to make money, do business, make contacts or to go on vacation.

These programs can also be transited and progressed just as your natal chart is. But instead of getting a circular map, you receive Atlas-type map(s) of the locations you are are in-terested in.

I highly recommend these uses of Astrology in this age of travel, commuting and frequent relocation. And thanks to a loving donation from a friend who is benefiting from relocation analysis, I now have all the software on my computer to make this information available to you. Please call me for more information at (505) 983-5911.

BREATHE

Thanks to two college students who have both donated their time, we have the new logo.

Chris Dovle, a Senior at University of Texas at Arlington developed the idea based on last summer's issue of LONGEVITY CIRCUIT

Chris writes: communication is a process of encoding and decoding and a circuit of communication is an electrical current with the energy going both ways. The ovum and sperm represent this two communication: the encode and the decode. And as the sperm orbits around the Chinese symbol for longevity, he indicates revolution, continuity and balance. The single circle between the Chinese symbol and the sperm/ovum electrical symbol holds these two principles together: thus both LONG-EVITY and CIRCUIT are interrelated and identified.

Steve Mathis is the wonderful graphic artist who donated his time to this project. His craft and professionalism are clearly evident. Both these students are ready to enter the job market: if you have work for them please contact them through newsletter. Thanks Chris Steve!

CURRENT TRENDS

PLANETS IN CAPRICORN: SATURN URANUS NEPTUNE

Capricorn still has the spotlight and for will some time, when for Saturn moves into Aquarius on Feb.6, 91, Neptune Uranus will be still be there.

Remember that Capricorn rules business, economics, beaurocracy, government, conservation and ecology, commercial real estate, the old, misers, and chronic invalids. He's unforgiving and long suf-fering. How many news items can you identify that relate to these issues?

Saturn is inhibiting, constricting, delaying. It affects timing. On the plus side its contribution is to get you back on the right timing so you wont miss out on what's rightfully yours.

A good research project, now that Saturn is changing signs, would be to see how delays over the last 2 1/2 years have actually benefitted

THE CARDINAL SIGNS ARB: ARIES CANCER LIBRA CAPRICORN

you. The Cardinal signs will see this most clearly.

Neptune rules art, spirituality, cultural values, oil and drugs. It's trendy and glamorous but constrained in Capricorn. So we are seeing a shift to the Right, the Masters leaving, flag waving, inner city urban problems, & drug issues. It denotes direct experience, tighter money, & oil shortages. In short, its jeans: stone-washed, acid-bleached, faded with holes and selling for big bucks!

Together with Uranus, its unhappy companion, we find social disruptions, insecurity, lack of trust, fear, censorship, reactionaries, and computerized businesses.

So what's good? We're laying foundations in the 90's. We're developing immunity, inner resources and moment-to-moment living as preparation for the big shift in energy coming in 5 or 6 years.

THE URANUS\NEPTUNE TWINS
In mid '92 we'll be in the midst of the Uranus/ Neptune conjunct. My clients are already experiencing the time warps, unexpected changes in consciousness, a yearning for the invisible or seeing the invisible, and feelings of unreality.

New technology will reveal the invisible through the microscope and telescope: anything we can't normally see with our eyes. But many will not need a mechanical aid. UFO's will also figure prominently.

Astronomy and Astrology will see more importance. With the launching of new space equipment we are learning more about the outer planets. The Yoyager has shown us many similarities between these two gas planets: both are blue from the methane in their atmo-sphere, and smoggy. And both are nearly the same size & temperature.

But Uranus is spooky
looking in its featurelessness and lacks a large internal heat source, probably from a cataclysmic shakeup that caused its unusual rotation.

These descriptions sound alot like the Uranus we know in Astrology: cool, unknowable, and calamitous.

Neptune on the otherhand is stormy and periodic, as the gases move through its atmosphere. And it's been found that both Neptune and Jupiter have spots of nearly the same size and latitude. Astrologers find this interesting because Jupiter ruled both Sagittarius and Pisces before Neptune was discovered. Did the ancients also see without the benefit of mechanical aids?

ECLIPSES

We've had both a solar and a lunar eclipse since the last newsletter. The effects of this phenomena can last up to 6 months. Whatever house they fall in in your natal chart will reveal important issues you can be working on.

Because eclipses only happen when the Sun & Moon are aligned with the Lunar Nodes, we feel unfinished karmic issues. Now we can heal them and new awarenesses can be developed.

Because reflected and direct light are shifted, we can also discover unfulfilled potentials.

The Lunar eclipse on Aug. 6 was extremely intense as it squared into a Pluto/Mars opposition at 151 - in fixed signs. Have you been feeling alot of anger, even hatred at unresolved situations? Have resolved situations? Have you wanted to strike out at you wanted to strike out at someone? On the plus side, this is a good time to use fear and anger to motivate you to positive action, to overcome obstacles. It's powerful spermal energy!

Many Astrologer consider EARTHQUAKES to be timed by eclipses. I've heard of several such predictions to occur in December Missouri.

occur in December: Missouri, San Francisco and Tokyo figure prominently.

There is another astrological reason for these predictions: There will be 6 planets in Capricorn at Christmastime. A grouping such as this is called a stellium. It is not as rare as a syzygy which is a kind of line-up only occurring once in every 175-200 yrs. When it happened in April, 1981, it spawned lots of dire predictions but we dire predictions but we didn't have an earthquake.

It's good to be aware of these things but I think we need more information; i.e. placing these planets in the U.S. chart would help but we have several different ways of charting the U.S. We need more research and thanks to computerized Astrology we are getting it. The Capricorn planets need practical knowledge & the recent advances in Astrology help to fulfill that. Panic is ever present in a period of transition: TEST EVERYTHING!

HEALTH CORNER: FOOT REFLEXOLOGY

There is no better technique for working on yourself then working on your feet. Why? Because reflexology says that the the foot corresponds to, or reflexes, the organs of the body. In other words, if your neck is stiff, you can rub the base of your big toe and get relief. It's also excellent for prevention of health problems. It's an old science and the saying, "You die from your feet up." comes from it. What's more, once you get used to it, there is nothing more relaxing. In fact, it is a stress reducer which is one of the main reasons why is works. It's an easy technique to learn and one that every body can do.

Many wonderful books have been written about Foot Reflexology and simple charts are available to help you learn where the positions are on the sole of the foot. It's worthwhile memorizing these positions not only for working on yourself, but for helping friends. In fact, some AC.L. people are known to work on each Fig other simultaneously. What a great way to unwind at the end of the day: You and your partner sitting on a couch or bed, facing each other, rubbing on each other's feet. Good for the Soul and the Soles. (Thanks! Abigail Smith of Wichita, Kan.)

"It is natural that grief at the death of a loved one should at first be stronger than happy memories of a shared past. Gradually, confortingly, and fruitfully, however, the deepest element in the relationship—the presence of the Absolute within it—can then start to enter inner consciousness. Present in absence, the loved one's reassuring and yet challenging voice speaks to us in the language of Life, which remakes both the living and the dead in its own image." K. G. Durckheim, The Call for the Master. ONE YEAR LATER:

THE MOVIE CRITIC: Remo Williams

"Professional assassination is the highest form of public service." So it is that C.U.R.E, a secret organization dedicated to getting rid of corrupt people in high places, recruits a tough city cop to do the dirty work of cleaning up those who "roam the halls of power with impunity." C.U.R.E.'s methods of recruitment are quite convincing to the reticent man who they beat up and kidnap. After surgically altering him, they give him a new name, Remo Williams, which they take from the bottom of his hospital bed-pan. He is indentured under threat of death if he tries to walk out or spill the beans.

But he learns to like beans. And rice, and the rest of the vegetarian diet his Korean

But he learns to like beans. And rice, and the rest of the vegetarian diet his Korean assassin mentor/teacher, Chiun, makes him eat. Chiun first teaches Remo to breathe telling him, "If you do not breathe correctly, you do not move correctly." He eventually becomes not just tough, but agile, swift and fearless. And he throws away his gun and learns to make his mind and body his weapons: he learns to dodge bullets. This particular trick comes in handy on his first assignment. When a defense contractor named Grove, who has procured millions of dollars for a phoney star-wars type weapons system is targeted by C.U.R.E. to be stopped, Remo, with only his mind and body, is pitted against Grove and his giant scheme. And Remo dodges more than bullets before he gets his man.

The most outstanding performance is turned in by Joel Grey as the wise and wiry Chiun who is transformed by his make-up into a very authentic looking Korean. There is not only wizardry in his acting, but Chiun's lines are succinctly magical: "Perfection is a path," he tells Remo, "not a destination."

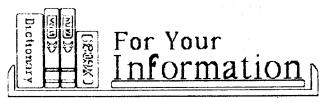

tells Remo, "not a destination."

"Remo Williams" stands tall in the line up movies about the guru/student relationship.

It reminds me of both "The Karate Kid" and "The Empire Strikes Back." Chiun is reminiscent of Yoda; and Remo, like young Skywalker, is called into service well before his training is complete.

"Remo" is a great movie. It's charming, often very funny, exciting, confronting and always entertaining. (Thanks! Tom Lumpkin of Euless, Texas.)

WILL exists within the confines of our space-time continuum and does not go beyond.

Wanting something changes the thing you want-essence of the quantum

You cannot WANT to float in the air and succeed.

But... you can LOVE the act of floating and be aware of the beauty and harmony of it.

And maybe someday the universe layer in which you are floating will link with your perception.

ALS 🔂:

We influence our futures (and pasts) directly with thought. Everytime you think of being happy and healthy, you are actually happy and healthy in some universe layer. Everytime you think of being sick or dying, you actually are sick or dying in some universe layer.

If you think enough universe layers, they eventually come into harmony and your thoughts become REALITY.
